Agenda Item: Airport Operations Report

Title: Work Session

Recommended Council MOTION: No motion required. This item is for informational purposes and discussion only.

Administrative or Policy Goal: Provide the City Council with a current operational and financial overview of Laramie Regional Airport and discuss the role of Special Purpose Excise Tax (SPET) funding in sustaining and improving airport infrastructure that supports commercial air service, public safety operations, and economic development within the community.

Background:

The Laramie Regional Airport continues to serve as an important transportation and economic asset for the City of Laramie and Albany County. The airport supports scheduled commercial air service, general aviation activity, medical transport, firefighting and emergency response operations, university aviation activities, and regional business travel.

Like many small commercial service airports, Laramie Regional Airport operates within a funding structure that relies on a combination of federal grants, state support, local funding, and airport-generated revenue. Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Airport Improvement Program (AIP) funding provides the majority of capital funding for eligible infrastructure projects; however, these grants require local matching funds and cannot be used for many operational needs.

To date, the airport has only utilized Special Purpose Excise Tax (SPET) funding for the construction of the new passenger terminal facility. That investment allowed the community to modernize the airport’s commercial passenger infrastructure and maintain reliable commercial air service.

The airport is now seeking $4 million in SPET funding to address critical airport infrastructure needs, with a primary focus on pavement rehabilitation and preservation. Airfield pavement—including taxiways, ramps, and aircraft parking areas—is among the airport’s most significant and costly infrastructure assets. Maintaining these surfaces is essential to ensure aircraft safety, prevent foreign object debris (FOD), and extend the life of the airport’s infrastructure.

Local investment through SPET funding will allow the airport to proactively maintain and rehabilitate these surfaces, reducing long-term costs and helping the airport leverage additional federal and state aviation funding where eligible.

During the work session, staff will provide an overview of:

- Current airport operations and activity levels
- Infrastructure needs and ongoing maintenance obligations
- The airport’s financial structure and funding sources
- The importance of local match funding for federal aviation grants

- How SPET funding could be utilized to sustain airport infrastructure and support long-term operational stability

The presentation is intended to provide Council with a comprehensive overview of the airport's role in the community and how strategic local investment helps maintain safe, reliable aviation services for residents, businesses, emergency services, and visitors.

Administrative or Policy Goal:

A solid foundation in municipal finance supports many policy goals of the City Council. More granularly, this work session series is an outgrowth of a 2024 council goal to develop improvements in financial transparency.

Background:

The City's finance division, collaborating with the City Manager's Office, has been working to improve financial transparency for the past several years. This work started small, with a redesign of the budget publication in 2019, and has grown and morphed since this time into a larger initiative. Accomplishments to date have included launching an open data tool for Laramie's budget and spending (made possible by the City's new financial software), establishment of the City Manager's Budget Advisory Committee, and publishing more concise financial information (the Community Financial Report and the Budget in Brief).

The journey toward transparency continues with this work session series, where financial topics will be explored in bite-sized chunks determined by the City Council. At each work session this spring, leading up to budget season, there will be a short presentation and discussion.

Presentation – Civic Cents Budget Process Overview

Budget Preparation Process Overview

Key Terms

Revenue

- Inflows of resources

Available Reserves

- Cash and other assets expected to be available within a one-year term, less obligations expected to be due within a one-year term and capital reserve requirements.

Personnel Expenditures

- Costs for all types of personnel related costs, including benefited employee wages, non-benefited employee wages, overtime, benefits, employment taxes, and similar items.

Operating Expenditures

- Ongoing costs of conducting routine operations, including contractual services and operating supplies.

Capital Expenditures

- Costs of capital investment, including buildings, vehicles, large equipment items, infrastructure maintenance (parks, streets, water, wastewater, etc.), major software acquisition, etc.

Highlights of the budget preparation and adoption process are described on pages 13-14 of the FY 2026 budget publication.

Regardless of the type of budget forecast, the City Manager determines the amounts recommended for the City Council’s consideration using a collaborative process.

Type of Budget or Forecast	How Prepared	Who Prepares
Revenue	Actual trends for past 3-5 years	Administrative Services Director
Available Reserves	Analysis of current balances, obligated amounts, and future reserve requirements	Administrative Services Director
Personnel Expenditures	Budget team prepares zero based budget for authorized positions. Directors request supplemental amounts.	Budget Team, HR, and Dept. Directors
Operating Expenditures	Existing budget from previous year carries forward (incremental budgeting). Directors can request supplemental amounts.	Budget Team and Dept. Directors
Capital Expenditures	Zero based budgets are used. Directors request all appropriations.	Dept. Directors

Budget Development

Overview of the City Manager's Recommendation

1. City Manager works with the Budget Team to develop direction and focus areas for budget preparation.
2. City Manager meets with Directors for budget kickoff meeting, listening to concerns for upcoming year and communicating the vision for budget preparation.
3. City leadership team meets to review the budget process, focus areas, and projected funding. Continues meeting as needed to review group topics.
4. Directors present supplemental requests to the City Manager for consideration.
5. City Manager considers requests and asks for follow-up as necessary (both from budget team and directors).
6. City Manager approves or denies requests, discussing final decisions with Directors.
7. Budget team translates the City Manager's recommended budget into publication form.
8. The City Manager's recommendation is presented to the City Council and public (around April 30).

Another View of Budget Preparation

Sustainability

The recommended budget should be sustainable over the long term.

- Is the combined total of forecasted revenue and available reserves sufficient to fund total expenditures?
- Are on-going expenditures funded with on-going resources? Are one-time amounts properly excluded from funding operating costs? What do long term trends tell us?
- Do funds have sufficient reserves for capital investment? For what time period?

Questions about the Budget Process?

Looking ahead to More Civic Cents

- Summarize the vision for the story of the City, as told by each fund
- Topic for next Civic Cents – story of the City as told through the SPET? Other ideas?
