Presentation only, no motion.

Background Information:

The design and engineering piece of this project was awarded to Russell+Mills. This project began with a kickoff meeting of stakeholders from the design team, city staff and Rotarians on September 8, 2021. At this meeting the team conducted a site visit and reviewed trends in park design with the John Beggs, LA with Russell+Mills. This kickoff meeting was followed by a public meeting (in-person) on September 22, 2021. We invited, through direct mail, all residences in Grand View Heights, release for the entire city PSA's and social media notices. The meeting was attended by about 20 individuals with the majority of those attendees coming from Grand View Heights. On October 7, 2021 the stakeholder team presented the preliminary design that takes input from the stakeholders and public.

This is a presentation on where that design stands, where we are going next and what to expect by the end of January 2022.
