CITY OF LARAMIE NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Wyoming Business Council is seeking grant and loan applications from counties, incorporated cities, towns, joint powers boards and tribes for the 2022 Business Ready Community (BRC) Grant and Loan Program. The intent of the program is to ready a community for new business development through economic or educational development projects which may include, but are not limited to water, sewer, streets, and roads, telecommunications, airports, purchase of rights of way, purchase of land, buildings, facilities, industrial and business parks, industrial site or business district development, amenities within a business or industrial park, landscaping, recreation and convention facilities, and or other physical projects. The rules governing BRC Grant and Loan Program are available on the Wyoming Business Council's website, <http://www.wyomingbusiness.org>. The City of Laramie proposes to submit an application for the BRC Business Committed Grant to support the construction of a research & development facility for Plenty Unlimited, Inc. in the Cirrus Sky Business Park and is seeking citizen input regarding this project.

The Laramie City Council will hold a Public Hearing on August 30th at 6:00 pm. The hearing will take place via Zoom Webinar ID #833 1668 5477, Passcode: 993052. Citizens can also submit written comments to the City of Laramie. All written comments must be received no later than 5:00 pm on August 30th, 2022. The Laramie City Council will take all comments into consideration before considering a resolution in support of the submitted application for a 2022 BRC Business Committed Award.

All information relative to this matter is available for review at the City of Laramie City Clerk's Office, at 406 Iverson Avenue, Laramie, WY. Anyone wishing to be heard should be present or may be represented by his or her agent at the meeting.

Mayor Weaver asked if there were any comments.
