

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Laramie is a political subdivision of the State of Wyoming; and,

WHEREAS, emergencies can occur at any time that require police, fire or emergency medical services; and,

WHEREAS, The Laramie City Council is committed to providing a high-quality emergency communications system to the residents of the region; and,

WHEREAS, the safety of our police officers, firefighters and EMS responders is dependent upon the quality and accuracy of information obtained from citizens who use the 9-1-1 system; and

WHEREAS, the Laramie City Council recognizes the professional and unending services of the 911 Emergency Communications Operators who answer 9-1-1 calls on a daily basis; and,

WHEREAS, the 911 Emergency Communications Operators are the link between people calling for help in an emergency situation and the emergency response agencies who arrive on the scene ; and,

WHEREAS, the 911 Emergency Communications Operators are the true backbone of the 9-1-1 system; and,

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has historically acknowledged the second week of April as National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Brian Harrington, acting as Mayor and President of the governing body of the City of Laramie, Wyoming do hereby proclaim April 9-15, 2023, as

National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week

on behalf of the 911 Emergency Communications Operators in Albany County, Wyoming, and encourages all local governments to sign a similar resolution and all 9-1-1 Emergency Communications Centers are encouraged to celebrate this week with appropriate activities and commemorations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the City of Laramie this 21st day of March 2023.

Brian Harrington
Mayor and President of Laramie City Council

Attest:

Nancy Bartholomew, CMC
City Clerk