

Agenda Item: Licensing

Title: Temporary use of Platte County Retail Liquor License held by DeLancey Enterprises LLC on October 2, 2020

Recommended Council MOTION:

That City Council grant permission to DeLancey Enterprises, LLC dba Rodeo Ranch to temporarily use their Platte County Retail Liquor License within Laramie city limits for a wedding at Alice Hardie Stevens Center, 603 E University Ave, Laramie, WY 82072, for a wedding on October 2, 2020.

---

Administrative or Policy Goal:

To fulfill the legal requirements of the Wyoming State Liquor Laws.

Background:

The City Clerk’s Office received the attached Application for an Alcohol Catering Permit, to secure permission from City Council to temporarily use their Platte County Retail Liquor License within Laramie city limits for a wedding located at Alice Hardie Stevens Center, 603 E University Ave, Laramie, WY 82072, for a wedding on October 2, 2020. A request has also been filed with Platte County Commissioners to receive permission to allow their license to temporarily be used outside their jurisdiction. Platte County Commissioners will be reviewing this item on September 15, 2020.

If approval of this request is granted by the City Council, DeLancey Enterprises LLC application with the City of Laramie for an alcohol catering permit for this event will be granted if approved by the Platte County Commissioners as well. The permit fee will be paid by DeLancey Enterprises LLC to the City of Laramie.

Legal/Statutory Authority:

As per Wyoming State Statute 12-4-502(d) “. . . Any applicant applying for a permit authorized by this section and having licensed premises located within a jurisdiction other than that jurisdiction that to which application is made, shall secure the written approval of the licensing authority of the jurisdiction in which the licensed premises are located prior to filing an application for a permit.”
