Insurance

Insurance coverage is required as a condition of an event, and the City Manager shall determine the amount of insurance required, minimum of $500,000, based upon the considerations routinely taken into account by the City in evaluating loss exposures, including, but not limited to, whether the event poses a substantial risk of damage or injury due to the anticipated number of participants, the nature of the event, the activities involved and the physical characteristics of the proposed site and activity. Such insurance shall name on the policy or by endorsement as additional insureds, the city, its officers, employees and agents.
